Beautiful Weather and Competitive Play!

April brought mostly gorgeous golfing weather, and the LGA made the most of it! While occasional showers briefly interrupted play, they kept the course looking lush and vibrant. A huge shoutout to our outstanding grounds crew for their hard work—the course is looking fantastic!

- April 3 – Low Gross/Low Net: Abbey Ater claimed gross honors, while Joan Meyer secured low net.
- April 10 – Low Putts: Third place went to Elisa Clinkscales, second to Joan Meyer, and first place to Connie Kennedy.
- April 18 – Golf for a Cause – A great day on the course in support of an important mission!

Memorial Net Championship Tournament

Held April 22-24, this annual event honors LGA members who came before us, paving the way for future generations to enjoy the sport we love. This three-day stroke play tournament is always a test of endurance, and this year was no exception. On day two, lightning had the final say, cutting play short. Despite the weather, we saw fantastic competition:

- Day One Money – Julie Zeagler
- Day Three Money – Angie Crisp
- Closest to the Pin Winners – Elisa Clinkscales and Abbey Ater

Final Tournament Results

President's Flight:

- Third Place: Mary Virginia Casper
- Second Place: Joan Meyer
- Champion: Mary Russell

Championship Flight:

- Second Place: Elain Hunter
- Low Gross Winner: Abbey Ater
- Low Net Champion: Connie Kennedy—claiming the title yet again for 2025!

Congratulations to all the players, and thank you for making this tournament a success! We can't wait to get back out on the course for more great golf!
